

About the brand

HAAN is a purpose-driven personal care brand founded in 2018 with a mission to blend functionality, style, and sustainability. Rooted in social responsibility, HAAN is committed to addressing the global water crisis by donating a portion of its profits to clean water initiatives in developing countries, including the construction of wells in communities in need. The brand’s identity is built on values like compassion, transparency, and adventure. HAAN champions environmental responsibility by pioneering refillable packaging across all its product categories, reducing plastic waste and promoting a circular economy.

Amenity collection

HAAN amenities combine modern design with conscious care, offering a curated selection of sleek, refillable personal care essentials ideal for hospitality and travel. Each product is crafted with natural, vegan ingredients to ensure both high performance and skin-friendly formulations. The amenity products are visually appealing, enhancing the guest experience with a touch of style. With a strong emphasis on refillability and sustainability, HAAN amenities help reduce single-use plastic waste, making them a smart, eco-conscious choice for hotels and venues committed to responsible luxury.
